The China Mail.

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1900.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Notes by the Way.

The English Mail was ready for delivery at 9 a.m. to-day.

The Sirdar visited the Queen at Bel-moral on June 7.

The death is reported on June 9 of the Duke of Wellington.

Lieutenant C. A. Ball-Aston, 2nd Battalion Royal Welch Fusiliers, has been selected for appointment as Staff Captain at Wei-hai-Wei.

The return of plague cases up to noon on the 21st June showed that 9 fresh cases and 7 deaths occurred during the preceding 24 hours.

The Times, in discussing affairs in China, says it is clear that we have to face a crisis, taxing severely not only our Diplomacy, but our material resources.

A London telegram dated June 5, relating to the rising in Ashanti says that Captain Tindal, of the 1st Battalion Welsh Regiment, and Lieutenant Matthews, of the 2nd Gloucesters, died of wounds received at Kheis.

H.M. surveying ship Waterwitch, which has been engaged in hydrographical work to the northward of Shanghai, returned to Shanghai on June 16, and was to remain there a week, afterwards resuming the survey work on which she will be employed all the summer.

Larceny.

One of the water police arrested a Chinaman in the Central District, yesterday, who had in his possession the cover of a water meter. It was found that this had been stolen and, as the Magistrate, to-day, the prisoner got three months' incarceration for his enterprise.

New Steamer Service.

The Bo de Chine says that the Franco-Chinese Syndicate, at the head of which are Messrs. L. Souffort and M. Lemaire, are about to establish a monthly service by the steamer Nanchan between Hongkong and Kuangchowwan, calling at Macao and Chinese ports on the way, such as Tientsin.

Secreted Arms.

A junk master thought he would deceive the authorities by concealing a rifle and a revolver, which he had in his possession minus the necessary license. He had several other arms on the junk which were properly accounted for on the declaration sheet. His foolishness cost him at the Magistrate, to-day, $25 of a fine in addition to the confiscation of the weapons.

Caught Red-handed.

For a considerable time the police at No. 7 Station, West Point, have had information that gambling was being carried on to no small extent at the house No. 61 High Street. Watch was, on several occasions, set at night-time but without success. Yesterday forenoon, about eleven o'clock, Sergeant O'Sullivan with a posse of police made a raid on the house and found the gamblers 'at home.' They were busy at the game when the Sergeant and his men entered, and, seventeen, including the two ringleaders, were arrested. At the Magistrate, to-day, Nos. 1 and 2 were each fined $10 with the alternative of a month's imprisonment; the others were fined $2, with the option of eight days' imprisonment.

Ontrage on a Sampan.

Yesterday, three men engaged a sampan at Hungnam Wharf to take them to Tsimshuiwan, beyond Kowloon City. When they got there, they told the occupants of the sampan, five in number, to wait their return. In half an hour they came back, and, on the return journey, two of the men produced chopsticks while the third took charge of the helm. One of the men attacked an old blind man with a chopstick and cut him severely about the hands and legs. Another attacked a woman, aiming a blow at her which seriously wounded an infant she was carrying. Having thoroughly subdued the sampanites, the robbers took articles from them to the value of $24. There was some money in the sampan which they failed to get, however. The robbers then ran the sampan ashore at Black Rock and cleared off. The matter was reported to the police at No. 2 Station, but no arrests have as yet been effected.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to my customers, says Dr. J. C. Williams, Van Nuys, N. Y.

It has always been used in my own family for ordinary coughs and colds and for the most stubborn and violent cases of whooping cough following influenza.

The Fate of the 'Fleur de Lotus.'

The Court at Colombo has ordered the sale by public auction of the Chinese junk Fleur de Lotus, which left Hongkong to sail to France as an exhibit at the Paris Exposition. The junk was sailed as far as Singapore, and then towed by the Shell Transport Company's steamer Chigwell to Colombo. The owner proceeded the junk by steamer to Colombo. The owners of the Chigwell pressed for payment of $1,000 for towage, and a claim was also made on behalf of Captain de Bourdonnet and the vessel's crew for wages due. It was argued that the captain and crew had priority of claim. The junk will be sold by public auction, and the proceeds deposited in Court before the question of priority is decided.
